Rescue in Scandinavia (55 Minutes)

1994. Documentary. Color & B/W.

Narration by Ms. Liv Ullmann.

Rescue in Scandinavia is a tribute to the many citizens of Norway and Denmark who worked to save lives of their Jewish countrymen during the Holocaust period, in spite of Nazi death threats, by guiding them to safety in Sweden. It also recounts the role of the Swedish government and citizens in providing sanctuary for these Jewish refugees. It combines interviews with rescuers and rescued in Norway and Denmark with interviews of public figures in Sweden and Finland.

The Bookseller (30 Minutes)

Film. Black & White.

A dramatization, based on the book, Rescue in Denmark, of an actual incident of Danish resistance to the Nazi persecution of the Jews during the World War II occupation of Denmark. This resistance included the evacuation of the Jewish community to a haven of safety in neighboring Sweden.
